Local and Otherwise.

Fred Chamberlain, of Jeddo, was in Yale Saturday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Adams, of Capac, were guests in Yale on Sunday.

Emerson Cooper and wife were at Port Huron and Cedarwood on Tuesday.

Phebe Roy spent Monday in St. Clair the guest of Mrs. R. H. Menerey.

We are publishing the 1st prize poem this week. The others will follow later.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Andrae and daughter Frances were in Detroit on Tuesday.

Art Dennis and family, of Kinde visited Yale relatives the latter part of last week.

T. J. Minnie and wife, C. F. Kennedy and wife visited St. Clair relatives and friends on Sunday.

Jas. L. Brown, wife and little daughter Margaret, of Port Huron spent part of the week with his parents.

Jerry Johnston and family, of Birmingham, spent Sunday with relatives and friends in Yale and vicinity.

Mother's Day was very appropriately and impressively observed by the services at the churches on Sunday.

Chas. Barr and Wm. E. Menerey went to Flint Tuesday, returning in the evening with a new Chevrolet for Mr. Menerey.

Mrs. O. R. Griffith, who has been visiting friends in Port Huron and Almont is expected to return home Saturday.

Chas. S. Brown, wife and sons John and Colin, and Walter Miller spent Sunday with relatives and friends near Sandusky.

Several local Yale Stars drove over to Capac on Wednesday to attend the installation ceremonies of newly elected officers of Capac Chapter.

The Juniors are preparing for their annual play which they expect to give on May 30th. "Whose Little Bride Are You" is the attractive title.

Wesley Dudley, ex-president of the village of Armada, made the Expositor office a pleasant call while in Yale Tuesday on his way to Roseburg.

Thos. Johnston is re-painting the outside of his dwelling house on Mechanic street. He has just finished making many changes and improvements on the inside.

Only a few more weeks of school before the summer vacation will be here. Students are anxiously looking forward to the events of Commencement week.

From the beautiful, bright spring days the first of the week, the weather today, Thursday, has turned cloudy and chilly, with indications of rain. A little moisture will be appreciated as the earth is very dry.

The annual supper given by the men of the Methodist Episcopal church in the church dining-room on Thursday evening last, was as decided a success as those preceding it. A large crowd dined on the finest that could be procured, and with splendid service. The men cleared a nice sum.

Rev. L. L. Marion and wife were brought from Janesville, Wis., this week to attend the funeral services of Mr. Marion's mother, who died at her home in Brown City after a stroke from which she did not regain consciousness. Mr. and Mrs. Marion are now in Yale and will remain over Sunday, the former to occupy his old pulpit in the Church of Christ on that day.

Picnicking seems to have been quite a fad this week. The teachers of Yale schools strolled down the creek on Tuesday after school and lunched under the trees on the grassy banks. The weather was delightful for this event, as it continued to be on Wednesday when the Sophomores autoed to Beard's hills, accompanied by Supt. Greenman and other teachers, taking their suppers along and roaming wild for a few pleasant hours.

John Muir is a firm believer in advertising. April 26th he had an auction sale at his farm south of Valley Center. Previous to the sale he ran an ad in the columns of the Expositor advertising said sale. An immense crowd was present on the above date and the bidding on the stock and implements offered was lively. The total receipts from the sale footed up $2,300. Mr. Muir says he inquired of several strangers present, who came from east, west, north and south, as to what medium they got their information regarding the sale, and they said they saw it in the Expositor. This is certainly proof that our paper is read by the buying public.

Margaret Leitch, of Marysville, spent part of the week in Yale with relatives.

Mary M. Brown was up from St. Clair over Sunday on a visit to Yale friends and relatives.

Ira Bricker and family, of Port Huron, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Bricker.

Don McDuff and family, of Gladwin, visited Yale relatives and friends the first of the week.

Mrs. Geo. Cavanagh, who has been confined to her home for about two weeks with sickness is slowly improving.

Thos. G. Holden and wife, of Detroit, were in Yale over Sunday. Mrs. Holden remained for a few days' visit with relatives and friends.

There will be union evangelistic tent meetings at Fargo, beginning Thursday, May 19th. Evangelist P. H. Kadey will be the leader. The public is invited.

Mrs. James Locke, who has spent the winter with her daughter, Mrs. L. Roy Fuller, has gone to Capac to visit with another daughter, Mrs. J. E. Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Putney arrived home yesterday from a few weeks' visit with their sons in Oklahoma and Kansas. Mr. Putney reports a splendid trip and a fine time, and states he is eight pounds heavier than when he left Michigan.—Sandusky Tribune.

Wilt thou take her for thy "pard" for better or for worse; to have, to hold, to safely guard, 'til hauled off in a hearse? Wilt thou let her have her way, consult her many wishes; make the fires every day, and help her with the dishes? Wilt thou give her all the "stuff" her little purse will pack, buy her an auto and trimmings, and a new summer suit? Wilt thou comfort and support her father and her mother, Aunt Jemima and Uncle John, eight sisters and a brother. And then his face grew pale and blank, it was too late to jilt; as through the chapel floor he sank, he sadly said, "I wilt!"

Anastigmat

f. 7.7 lens

$25.00

For all-round, day-in-and-day-out picture making, the 2C has always particularly appealed to us—we think it will appeal to you. It's compact and convenient to carry, for example, and yet the picture it makes is just short of post card size—2 1/2 x 4 1/4 inches. And then its lens equipment. The Kodak Anastigmat is designed by Kodak experts and manufactured in Kodak factories for the particular Kodak on which it is to be fitted. As a result lens and shutter and auxiliary attachment are in perfect harmony—and better pictures follow as a matter of course.

See it here. We are featuring the "Junior 2C" in our Kodak department. Other Kodaks—all Autographic—from $8.00 up. Brownies from $2.00 up.
